

Uganda Summer 2020

early June – mid/end July, 2020 (6 weeks)

- Open to: master's and doctoral students in public health and related fields
- Possible credit for PH 650/750/850 (applied practice experience/field placement)
- Students are paired with Ugandan and Nigerian students in field placements in local rural district health centers
- Estimated program fee: $850* (accommodation in the field, in country transportation). Other expenses in addition to program fee: flight, visa fee, vaccinations, etc.

SDSU Contact: Dr. Susan M. Kiene

**estimated, amount subject to change until confirmed by the host University (Makerere)*

Sample Activities

- TB loss to follow-up- Data collection
  - Qualitative interviews with focal persons
  - Data entry
  - Data analysis
  - Writing week
- Rotavirus vaccine training and introduction
- Cholera Outbreak
  - case tracking and case investigation
- Vaccine delivery
- District Health Team (DHT) meetings
- Data quality assessment

District Health Services

Cholera Investigation

Rotavirus vaccine introduction

